

Terms & conditions for an VMO camera donation

Version 1.0 from 29/04/2021

1. These terms and conditions are agreed between the camera donator ... (short: donator) and the camera receiver ... (short: receiver).
2. Purpose of this contract is, that the donator pays a camera and the receiver operates it at an agreed location to gain maximum scientific profit.
3. The camera remains in ownership of the donator.
4. The receiver cannot claim the camera.
5. The camera will become part of the VMO camera network and both the donator and receiver consent to the terms & conditions of the VMO camera network. Towards the camera network, the receiver has the role of the camera owner will all the rights and duties which are described there.
6. In the map of the VMO camera network, both the donator and the receiver are listed as camera operators.
7. The donator ships the camera to the receiver at his own costs.
8. The receiver installs the camera at the location that was agreed beforehand with the donator, and operates it there. That is, he cares onsite that the system is working.
9. The receiver provides all local prerequisites for the camera (e.g. mounting, power supply, internet access) and covers corresponding costs.
10. The receiver provides remote access to the camera for the donator.
11. The donator and receiver agree on who is doing the daily operations tasks (e.g. deletion of false detections).
12. The receiver is handling the camera with care and protects it just as if it was his own property. The camera should be covered by the insurance of the receiver.
13. The receiver is not personally liable if the camera is damaged, getting out of order or stolen. If the damage was not done willfully or grossly negligent, he does not have to make amends to the donator. However, he should try to get the damage redeemed by his insurance.
14. Donator and receiver can cancel this contract at any time and without the need to give a reason.
15. In case of cancellation, the receiver has to send the camera back within one month at his own costs.
16. In addition, the donator and receiver agree on the following arrangements: ...

Date:

Signature of camera donator:

Signature of camera receiver: